The NORDAHL GRIEG LEIKARRING OG SPELEMANNSLAG is a non-profit Norwegian folk dance and music group that was organized in 1985. Our purpose is to learn, enjoy, and perform the traditional dances and music of Norway, and to maintain the traditional songs and costumes. Our group is named after Nordahl Grieg, a Norwegian poet and World War II hero. Leikarring is a Norwegian word for a dance group that translates literally as: leike = to play or dance, ring= a circle or ring.

Spelemannslag is the Norwegian word for a musical group. The individual costumes (bunader) and jewelry worn are unique to particular communities in Norway, as are the songs, tunes, dialects, and dances.
